

PHRASAL VERBS CHALLENGE

GOOD MORNING

My alarm goes off at 6:15. I wake up, lean over and turn it off. I get up fast and go to the kitchen. I put on the coffee and go to the bathroom. I take my pyjamas off and jump in the shower. In the bedroom I put on my clothes and rush to the kitchen to have my coffee. I clean the kitchen up and set off to work. When the bus arrives, I get on the bus and after three stops I get off. I get to work at 8 and my day can start.

AT SCHOOL

Can you guess the meaning of the phrasal verbs?

- ~ Go over your test before you hand it in.
- ~ If you get behind with your work, it will be hard to catch up with your classmates.
- ~ In September I always have to brush up on my English.
- ~ I know grammar is difficult, but never give up! Stick at it and you'll get there.

AT THE BANK

Match the definitions with the phrasal verbs for banking.

- |                     |  |
|---------------------|--|
| to pay back  | to deposit money in a bank account     |
| to pay off   | to withdraw money from a bank account  |
| to set aside | to completely pay your mortgage / loan |
| to take out  | to return money you have borrowed      |
| to put in    | to save up money                       |

PUT THE ROMANTIC RELATIONSHIP IN ORDER

1. John cheated on Sue.
2. Sue began to fall for John.
3. John asked Sue out for dinner.
4. It looked like John was hitting on Sue.
As Sue was crazy about John, she made it up with him.
6. John started chatting Sue up at the party.
7. John asked Sue for forgiveness.
8. Sue split up with John.

